Summer Fields

Graceful leaf forms and three-dimensional flowers mingle above the surface of this soda-lime glass bead created by glass artist Dolly Ahles, of Flamedancer Beads. The bead's encased background contains silver foil and frit, giving it inner depth. The flowers are created separately and added to the background using additional flower petals and lush greenery, resulting in a three-dimensional glass bouquet. To see more of Dolly's work, visit flamedancerbeads.com, or meet her at this year's Bead&Button Show, Booth #1013, and at the fall and spring Best Bead Shows in Tucson, Arizona. Necklace designed by Anna Elizabeth Draeger.
